EXPLANATIONS

FORM B9F (12/1/08)

Filing of Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Case	A bankruptcy case under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (title 11, United States Code) has been filed in this court by or against the debtor(s) listed on the front side (or the existing case under another chapter has been converted to chapter 11). Chapter 11 allows a debtor to reorganize or liquidate pursuant to a plan. A plan is not effective unless confirmed by the court. You may be sent a copy of the plan and a disclosure statement telling you about the plan, and you might have the opportunity to vote on the plan. You will be sent notice of the date of the confirmation hearing, and you may object to confirmation of the plan and attend the confirmation hearing. Unless a trustee is serving, the debtor will remain in possession of the debtor's property and may continue to operate any business.
Creditors May Not Take Certain Actions	Prohibited collection actions are listed in Bankruptcy Code § 362. Common examples of prohibited actions include contacting the debtor by telephone, mail or otherwise to demand repayment; taking actions to collect money or obtain property from the debtor; repossessing the debtor's property; and starting or continuing lawsuits or foreclosures. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although the debtor can request the court to extend or impose a stay.
Meeting of Creditors	A meeting of creditors is scheduled for the date, time and location listed on the front side. The debtor's representative must be present at the meeting to be questioned under oath by the trustee and by creditors. Creditors are welcome to attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and concluded at a later date without further notice. The court, after notice and a hearing, may order that the United States trustee not convene the meeting if the debtor has filed a plan for which the debtor solicited acceptances before filing the case. As mandated by the Department of Homeland Security, ALL visitors (except minors accompanied by an adult) to any federal building or courthouse, must present a current, valid, government issued photo identification (e.g., drivers license, state identification card, passport, or immigration card).
Claims	A Proof of Claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. If a Proof of Claim form is not included with this notice, you can obtain one at any bankruptcy clerk's office. You may look at the schedules that have been or will be filed at the bankruptcy clerk's office. If your claim is scheduled and is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, it will be allowed in the amount scheduled unless you filed a Proof of Claim or you are sent further notice about the claim. Whether or not your claim is scheduled, you are permitted to file a Proof of Claim. If your claim is not listed at all or if your claim is listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, then you must file a Proof of Claim by the "Deadline to File a Proof of Claim" listed on the front side, or you might not be paid any money on your claim against the debtor in the bankruptcy case and may be unable to vote on the plan. However, if this is a converted case, all claims filed under the initial chapter shall be deemed filed and need not to be refiled. A secured creditor retains rights in its collateral regardless of whether that creditor files a Proof of Claim. Filing a Proof of Claim submits the creditor to the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court, with consequences a lawyer can explain. For example, a secured creditor who files a Proof of Claim may surrender important nonmonetary rights, including the right to a jury trial. Filing Deadline for a Creditor with a Foreign Address: The deadlines for filing claims set forth on the front of this notice apply to all creditors. If this notice has been mailed to a creditor at a foreign address, the creditor may file a motion requesting the court to extend the deadline. Claims not filed via CM/ECF can be filed at any clerk's office location using the claim form provided with this notice. To receive acknowledgement of receipt by the clerk, enclose a copy of the claim and an adequate sized stamped self addressed envelope. The deadline for filing objections to claims will be established pursuant to Local Rule 3007-1 (B)(1).
Discharge of Debts	Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See Bankruptcy Code § 1141(d). A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor, except as provided in the plan. If you believe that a debt owed to you is not dischargeable under Bankruptcy Code § 1141(d)(6)(A), you must start a lawsuit by filing a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the "Deadline to File a Complaint to Determine Dischargeability of Certain Debts" listed on the front side. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the complaint and any required filing fee by that Deadline. Writing a letter to the court or judge is not sufficient. An adversary complaint must be filed in accordance with the applicable rules.
Bankruptcy Clerk's Office	Documents filed conventionally in paper may be filed at any bankruptcy clerk's office. Documents may be viewed in electronic format at any clerk's office public terminal (no charge for viewing) or via PACER ON THE INTERNET (charges apply). Case filing information and unexpired deadline dates can be obtained by calling the Voice Case Information System: (305)536-5979 or (800)473-0226.
Creditor with a Foreign Address	Consult a lawyer familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions regarding your rights in this case.
Electronic Bankruptcy Noticing	Parties can now choose to receive all notices (including attachments) served by the clerk's office electronically instead of via US mail. For information on or to register for this free service, contact the Bankruptcy Noticing Center at www.ebnuscourts.com
Translating Services	Language interpretation of the meeting of creditors will be provided to the debtor at no cost, upon request to the trustee, through a telephone interpreter service. Persons with communications disabilities should contact the U.S. Trustee's office to arrange for translating services at the meeting of creditors.
